

A Christmas Day Football Experience You'll Never Forget

Some prizes are exciting. Others belong on your bucket list.

This Christmas, Red Carpet Rewards is giving five lucky winners the chance to experience one of professional football's greatest rivalries live at Soldier Field as Chicago takes on Green Bay on Christmas Day.

The history. The rivalry. The roar of the crowd. The cold Chicago air. And the opportunity to be inside one of football's most iconic stadiums for an unforgettable holiday matchup.

This isn't just another game—it's the kind of experience football fans dream about.

Christmas Day at Soldier Field

Few rivalries carry as much tradition, passion and history as Chicago versus Green Bay. When these two teams meet, the atmosphere is different. Every play matters a little more. Every cheer is louder. Every moment feels bigger.

Now imagine experiencing it all on Christmas Day.

On Friday, December 25, 2026, Chicago will welcome Green Bay to Soldier Field for a noon kickoff. Five Red Carpet Rewards winners will each receive two tickets, allowing them to share this incredible experience with a friend or family member.
