PRAIRIE STATE GAMING

At Prairie State Gaming, we believe a loyalty program should do more than reward participation - it should create moments people remember.

That philosophy is on full display this fall as Red Carpet Rewards and Prairie State Gaming give Illinois players two different ways to experience one of football's greatest traditions: Holiday Game Day.

The newest promotion kicked off Friday, September 11, with the Thanksgiving Day Football Tickets Giveaway exclusively on the Prairie State Gaming Facebook page. One winner will receive a pair of tickets to see Chicago take on Detroit on Thanksgiving Day, plus $500 cash. To enter, players simply comment on the official post and tell us who they would take to the game. Entries run September 11-24, with the winner selected September 25.

At the same time, Red Carpet Rewards members are earning entries toward another marquee experience: Christmas Day football in Chicago. Through October 22, members can earn entries for the chance to win tickets to see Green Bay take on Chicago at Soldier Field on Christmas Day. Five winners will each receive two tickets.

Two holidays. Two major football traditions. Two different ways to win. And that is exactly what makes Red Carpet Rewards different.

RCR is built around experiences - from Bucket List prizes and Statewide Getaways to regional concerts, professional sporting events, cash giveaways and app-exclusive promotions. Trivia Tuesdays, Multiplier Days, bonus opportunities, location prizes and recurring giveaways give players more reasons to stay connected throughout the year.

The Christmas Game Day promotion is a perfect example. Players can earn entries at participating Prairie State Gaming locations, with 2X Entry Mondays and 5X Entry Fridays creating even more opportunities during the promotional period. The Thanksgiving giveaway takes that same experience-driven approach to social media, giving our Facebook community another exclusive way to participate.

For players, that means more opportunities to win experiences worth talking about. For our partner locations, it means being connected to a loyalty ecosystem designed to create excitement, engagement and reasons to return.

We believe Red Carpet Rewards continues to deliver the strongest experience-driven loyalty offering in Illinois gaming - because the goal isn't simply to give away prizes. It is to create the kind of moments people remember long after the drawing ends.

Red Carpet Rewards. More ways to win. More reasons to play with Prairie State Gaming.

Play for the Moments!
